

'Under the Harvest Moon'

by Carl Sandburg 1878 –1967

*Under the harvest moon,
When the soft silver drips shimmering
Over the garden nights,
Death, the gray mocker,
Comes and whispers to you
As a beautiful friend, who remembers.
Under the summer roses
When the fragrant crimson lurks in the dusk
Of the wild red leaves,
Love, with little hands,
Comes and touches you
With a thousand memories,
And asks you beautiful, unanswerable questions.*

Helen's family thank you for your kindness and support today.

At the conclusion of the service, you are warmly invited to remain for refreshments. You are also welcome to join the family at 12.30pm for the burial service at The Hamilton Park Cemetery, Newstead.

Poem: 'All is Perfect' written by Louise Hay: Presented by Katrina

*In the infinity of life where I am,
all is perfect, whole and complete.
I no longer choose to believe in old limitations and lacks.
I now choose to begin to see myself as the Universe sees me,
perfect, whole and complete.
The truth of my Being is that I was created
perfect, whole and complete.
I am now perfect, whole and complete.
I will always be perfect, whole and complete.
I now choose to live my life from this understanding.
I am in the right place at the right time, doing the right thing.
All is well with the world.*

Processional: 'Piano Concerto No 23 in A Major'3' - W.A. Mozart
