Blackbirds Bye Bye

- Charlie Dunbar, September 2021.

Raewyn is back with her trusty broom
Sweeping away under a waning moon
She works away at a steady pace
Soon all the bark will be back in place
The cheeky blackbirds chatter and wait
For Raewyn to exit the Fox Street locked gate
Back to work and enjoying the fun
Raewyn's good work is back to square one
Alas! Tomorrow is just another day
For the blackbirds to continue their destructive way
Oh! I wish I had a scatter gun
I'd show them whose turn to have some fun
And catch them as sure as the rising sun.
Bye bye, blackbirds, bye bye!
